There are three main forms of camping available to hikers.

Great Ocean Walk individual hike-in campsites

Seven purpose-built Great Ocean Walk hike-in campsites are located at manageable intervals for multi-day walking along the Great Ocean Walk. Each campsite has eight individual camp pads set into the surrounding bushland. Each camp pad has room for a 2-3 person tent. There is a maximum number of people (12) per hiker party, booking no more than four hike-in campsites at each location. Registration fees apply at these campsites.

Great Ocean Walk Group Areas

The Great Ocean Walk hike-in campsites at Elliot Ridge, Blanket Bay, Cape Otway, Aire River and Johanna Beach have dedicated group areas. These are larger and more open sites catering for groups up to a maximum of 16 people, with enough room for eight, 2-3 person tents. Registration fees apply at these campsites.

Car-based Camping

There are five drive-in campsites: Blanket Bay, Parker Hill, Aire River East and West, and Johanna Beach. These sites have minimal facilities and are aimed at visitors camping in proximity to their vehicles. Registration fees do not apply at these sites (except Blanket Bay during Christmas and Easter). Car-based camping is not available in the Great Otway National Park west of Johanna Beach. Hikers are required to use the dedicated hike-in campsites for the Great Ocean Walk (Bookings and fees are applicable) visit www.greatoceanwalk.com.au. 7. What Great Ocean Walk Maps and Brochures are available?

Parks Victoria has published a fold-out colour 'Information and Map Guide to the Great Ocean Walk'. This guide provides you with all the details you need to know to navigate your way along the Great Ocean Walk.

The 'Information and Map Guide to the Great Ocean Walk' is available through Parks Victoria (tel. 13 1963) and Information Victoria. The Guide is also available from local visitor centres closer to the Great Ocean Road at: Queenscliff, Torquay, Lorne, Apollo Bay, Port Campbell and Warrnambool. The guide can be purchased from Parks Victoria over the phone using a credit card.

For hikers who would like more detail, 'The Otways 4WD Touring Guide', published by Meridian, is a comprehensive contour map of the Otways Region. The Great Ocean Walk is highlighted on this map.

Both maps are available from the Apollo Bay Visitor Information Centre and can be purchased by credit card over the phone on (03) 5237 6529, and posted to you.

8. How can hikers organise transport for the walk?

Being a linear rather than a circuit walk, utilising two vehicles in a 'car shuffle' will provide the most flexible and convenient transport options. A 'car shuffle' is a good way to provide transport to and from the start and end of the walk independent of transport timetables. Hikers can for example drive to the end of the walk with both vehicles, drop one off, and then return to the start of the walk in the other vehicle.

If you have only one or no vehicles, you may consider using a shuttle service provider. If hikers are utilising their own vehicle, we recommend that you leave this vehicle at the end of your walk first and get shuttled back to where you will be starting your walk. This gives you the convenience of walking towards your vehicle to your final destination; and avoiding possible glitches such as missing pick-up times arranged with transport providers because of lateness on your last day. Mobile telephone coverage is not reliable along the walk, which may make changing agreed times problematic.

Current shuttle services recommended by Parks Victoria are:

GOR Shuttle	Ph. 5237 9278 or 0428 379278
Walk 91	Ph. 5237 1189 or 0405 495909
Timboon Taxi	Ph. 0438 407777

For hikers who require public transport back to Apollo Bay, there is a V/Line bus service to Apollo Bay via the Great Ocean Road, stopping at Princetown and the Twelve Apostles car park. Alternatively, if you are heading directly to Melbourne or Geelong, V/Line services also head inland via Colac and the Princess Highway. Similarly, this service is available for those travelling further west along the Victorian coastline. Contact Warrnambool Bus Service (V/Line) to book your trip on (03) 5562 5748.

9. Where can I park my car?

Public parking in the Great Otway National Park is available at the following car parks: Shelly Beach, Blanket Bay, Parker Hill, Cape Otway, Aire River East and West, Johanna Beach, Milanesia Beach Access, Moonlight Head, The Gables Lookout, and Wreck Beach. No designated long-term parking is provided in the Apollo Bay and Marengo area, however vehicles can be parked in the foreshore car parks between Apollo Bay and Marengo.

Vehicles can be parked at the Princetown Recreation Reserve for hikers completing the 'end' of the walk. Hikers need to confirm with Princetown Recreation Reserve before parking here. This camping reserve is managed by a caretaker, providing relatively secure parking (tel. 0429-985176 or 03-5598 8119). Walkers usually drop their heavy packs off at their cars as they hike past the Reserve, before continuing on for 5 km to complete the end of the Great Ocean Walk, and returning to their vehicles.

Parking areas within the Great Otway National Park are open to the public at all times. Owners are responsible for any vehicles and their contents left at these sites. Please remove any valuables and lock your vehicle.

At the end of the Walk, there is small information and parking bay suitable for day parking, and 'dropping-off' and 'picking-up' hikers. This is located opposite the historic Glenample Homestead, adjacent to the Twelve Apostles. Hikers, please note that the Glenample Homestead is currently closed. It is not recommended that visitors use the Gibson Steps car park for overnight parking.

The Twelve Apostles car park has no overnight parking. There is limited day parking available but please note that this due to a high volume of day visitors car parks are not assured. The area is not patrolled after hours and hikers leave their vehicles in these areas at their own risk. It is strongly recommended that hikers utilize the shuttle services available or arrange 'pick-ups', 'drop-offs' prior to commencement of your walk.

A number of private businesses provide secure parking. Please click on the 'Services and Tours' link on the website (www.greatoceanwalk.com.au).

Healthy Parks Healthy People®

10. Is there water available along the walk?

Untreated rainwater is collected in tanks located in the Great Ocean Walk hike-in campsites and is available for hiker use. This water is not suitable for drinking unless treated. There are a number of different methods that hikers can use to treat rain water, such as filtering and boiling or adding sterilisation tablets. For further information, please refer to the Parks Victoria Park Note entitled 'Water-make it safe to drink' (see www.parkweb.vic.gov.au).

At Blanket Bay, untreated rainwater is available for Great Ocean Walk hikers from a tap in the car-based campground. This water is not suitable to drink unless treated.

Whilst the water level of each campsite tank is checked on a regular basis by Park Rangers, Parks Victoria cannot guarantee that rainwater will always be available at each campsite. Hikers are responsible for their own water requirements. In periods of warm weather, hikers will need to carry extra water. There are a number of potential water drop sites along the walk, where water containers can be dropped off by 2WD vehicle and discretely hidden in vegetation for intended use along the hike. All containers should be recovered and removed following the completion of your walk.

11. Can I purchase food along the way?

The options for purchasing food once you have commenced your walk are very limited. Hikers can discretely drop off their own personal food and water at a number of 2WD access points along the walk by hiding it amongst vegetation out of sight of others (guard against foraging animals such as foxes and possums by using sealed containers). This service is also available from Parks Victoria's licensed tour operators (please follow the 'Tours and Services' link in the website (www.greatoceanwalk.com.au)).

The Cape Otway Lightstation precinct has a café that serves light meals and refreshments during business hours. However you must purchase an admission ticket to the historic facility to gain access. The Lightstation ticket sales kiosk near the car park area also sells cold drinks and snacks to the public not entering the lighthouse precinct. The Lightstation can be contacted on (03) 5237 9240.

Other limited food supplies are available from Bimbi Park private campground, Lavers Hill and Princetown General Store. The township of Apollo Bay has supermarkets for more comprehensive shopping needs prior to commencing walks.

12. Why do I need to check the tide times?

The Great Ocean Walk has a few short sections where beach walking is necessary. These sections are generally passable on all tides, though after rainfall events, may be impassable at high tide. There are also a number of alternative beach walks and side trips that can at times become dangerous or impassable at high tide. There are caution signs marked on the GOW map at these points. Walkers must plan ahead using the correct tide tables, and make a visual assessment of tide levels. It is recommended to stay on the Great Ocean Walk .

There are some alternative beach walks, where hikers cannot see tide levels along the whole beach walk from the Great Ocean Walk, for example at Wreck Beach, located between Ryans Den and Devils Kitchen campsites. The spectacular Wreck Beach is accessed from the top of the cliff by 366 stairs. The beach is defined by 100 m sheer cliffs on one side and the ocean on the other, and is well worth planning your walk beforehand for the experience. Hikers need to time their walk along Wreck Beach to correspond with the low-tide period. However, the route may be impassable during rough seas, even at low tide. If you have any doubts, stay on the GOW along the cliff tops above Wreck Beach. Hikers can check tide times at the Apollo Bay or Port Campbell Visitor Information Centres or with the National Tidal Facility (www.bom.gov.au/oceanography). Planning ahead and walking the GOW (all-tide route) at this point will save hikers a lot of unnecessary walking, and the inconvenience and disappointment of encountering impeding high tides on their walk late in the day.

Please note: for the Great Ocean Walk sections west of Moonlight Head to the Twelve Apostles, including Wreck Beach, refer to the Port Campbell tide times (subtract 4 minutes from Portland tide times for the approximate local times). For the Great Ocean Walk sections east of Moonlight Head, refer to the Apollo Bay tide-times (subtract 28 minutes from the Port Phillip Heads times for the approximate local tide times).

13. What wildlife should I be aware of?

The Great Ocean Walk provides the hiker with a range of natural experiences. Hikers are often able to observe a wide range of animals along the walk such as koalas, wallabies, echidnas, reptiles and many bird species. However, hikers need to also be aware that they can occasionally share the walking track with snakes, ants, bees, European wasps and leaches. This is all a part of the experience of being out 'in the bush'. Hikers with allergies need to ensure they have appropriate medication. All hiker parties should carry a basic first-aid kit.

Please do not touch or feed wildlife, and please take all rubbish home with you as it can cause injury to wildlife.

The Great Ocean Walk traverses a section of Victoria's wild southern coastline, and as a consequence weather conditions can change with short notice at any time of the year. Please take appropriate clothing.

Walking after dark on the Great Ocean Walk is not recommended.

14. Can I have a campfire?

There are no camp fires allowed at Great Ocean Walk campsites at any time. Camp fires can be lit within the Great Otway National Park at Blanket Bay and Aire River West car-based camping areas in designated fireplaces only. Campers must provide their own firewood from outside the National Park. No fires or flames are permitted anywhere on Total Fire Ban days, inside or outside tents, shelters or toilets. This includes the use of portable compact liquid or gas cooking stoves. For further information, please ring the CFA on 13 1599 or visit the CFA website (www.cfa.vic.gov.au)

15. Your Bushfire Safety

The Great Ocean Walk is in a high bushfire risk area and there is no safe place to shelter and survive a bushfire. Because your safety is your responsibility, we ask that you read this guide to Prepare, Act and Survive.

During the fire season, over the warmer months of the year, hikers on the Great Ocean Walk need to be aware of when a Total Fire Ban has been declared. On these days you must not light a fire and stop any activity which might start a fire. This includes using portable liquid and gas fuel cooking stoves. During periods of hot and windy weather and in the event a Total Fire Ban is declared, hikers should carry some food that does not need to be cooked. For Total Fire Ban information, please call the Country Fire Authority (CFA) on 13 1599 or visit the CFA website www.cfa.vic.gov.au

The Great Ocean Walk is in the South West Fire District.

For information on fires in Victoria and general fire safety, please contact the Victoria Bushfire Information Line on freecall 1800 240 667. People can also tune into their emergency broadcasters: ABC Local Radio (including 774 on the AM band) and commercial radio. In the event of an uncontrolled fire or any fire being lit on a Total Fire Ban day, please ring 000 and ask for the CFA.

Victoria also has a Fire Danger Rating (FDR) indicator. The FDR predicts how a fire would behave if it started and how difficult it would be to put out. It is an indicator of the danger you might face should a fire start, so the FDR is a trigger to act. The expected FDR will feature in weather forecasts and be broadcast on radio and TV and appear in some newspapers. It can also be found on the CFA website at cfa.vic.gov.au or by calling the Victorian Bushfire Information Line on 1800 240 667

On days rated Severe and Extreme fire danger, all walkers are advised to consider their safety along their planned walking route. If temperatures and winds are high, escape routes need to be considered as many sections of the walk have no safe refuge due to impenetrable heathland vegetation, thick fuel-laden forest, steep cliffs or a combination of these. Parks Victoria advises that leaving the park early in the day is your best option, do not wait and see.

Code Red indicates the worst conditions for a bush or grass fire and leaving the park the night before is the safest option, do not wait and see. Parks Victoria advises park visitors that the Great Otway National Park will be closed on days of Code Red fire weather predictions.

Check the attached brochure Hiking and Camping in Parks and Forests for more information.

The Great Ocean Walk is subject to the Department of Sustainability's (DSE) Planned Burning program aimed at reducing the bushfire risk in Victoria's public land. Planned burns usually happen in autumn or spring and may impact on sections of the walk. Planned burning is weather dependent, so advice on when it may occur could be short. Walkers may need to look at alternative options to avoid the areas impacted and/or repeat sections of the walk when a planned burn is underway. Information will be updated on the GOW website and can be found on the DSE website www.dse.vic.gov.au

16. Will I have mobile phone coverage on the walk?

Mobile telephone coverage is intermittent along the Great Ocean Walk. Hikers are advised to check their mobile telephones for reception along the way. In the event that walkers need to contact someone, one option can be to return to the last spot they received reception to make a call out. Generally this is at high points with little overhanging vegetation. These locations include, Blanket Bay beach area, Station Beach inland walk section, Ryans Den campsite, Moonlight Head and Devils Kitchen campsite ocean-view areas,

In an emergency, ring 000 for Police, Fire and Ambulance. For mobile telephones in poor reception areas, ring 112 in emergencies.
